PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root, and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry bark, in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hanging chronic coughs, bronchitis and nervous troubles and relieve sore throat, hoarseness, and acute coughs. It is not so effective. It is in the lingering, hanging coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"It dissolves all the excellent purposes. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time. Its action upon the stomach, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis, is most beneficial. It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of prostatic hypertrophy and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots containing this wonderful medicine. The booklet is free.

Remedy CATARRH
Ely's Cream Balm
Is quickly absorbed.
Gives relief at once.
It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane from infection, and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cents, at drug stores or by mail. In liquid form, 75 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Rheumatism
I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pains of this distressing disease.
In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Danzig—I found the best ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made. A perfect, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I found that many cases of Rheumatism, but not at last, it finally cured all curable cases of this horrible, most distressing disease. Those same like granular matter, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

ATTEMPT TO POISON FAMILY.

An attempt to poison the family of William H. Westall, of Ashville, N. C., was made yesterday by Julia Fishour, a sixteen-year-old girl, adopted by the Westall family. The girl admitted that she tried to kill Mrs. William Westall by putting poison in her coffee. Her act was prompted by a spirit of revenge, she said, because a few days ago Mrs. Westall had reproved her and wounded the feelings.

A warrant was issued, charging her with an attempt to commit murder. She was arrested yesterday.

The girl is in short dresses and is a pupil in the city schools. She was adopted when quite young by the Westall family, with whom she had made her home. Amid whom she made her confession.

"I found a bottle marked poison," she said, "and when no one was looking I poured it into the coffee and then destroyed the bottle."

When Mrs. Westall attempted to drink her coffee her throat was burned and she became deathly sick. A physician was hastily summoned. The other members of the family escaped, as Mrs. Westall was the first to drink the coffee. It was ascertained that the poison used by the girl was a disinfectant for scarlet fever and contained a large amount of carbolic acid.

SHOT PHYSICIAN AND HERSELF.

Dr. J. A. Attridge, aged thirty-eight, and his patient, Mrs. John B. Griffith, aged thirty-five were taken to hospital in Detroit, Mich., last night from Mrs. Griffith's room in the Roycroft apartments, both shot through the head and in critical condition. Mrs. Griffith had been in Harper Hospital several weeks receiving treatment and had just been removed to her room, under the direction of Dr. Attridge, when the shooting occurred.

Mrs. Griffith's sister Miss Stella Wade of Holly, Mich., had complied with her request to leave the room, when she heard a shot and saw Dr. Attridge rush from the bedroom after her. He fell to the floor in the dining room. As Miss Wade ran toward the street to call for help she heard a second shot. Neighbors found Mrs. Griffith lying in bed with a revolver near her and her brain pierced by a bullet.

The woman's husband said he and his wife had trouble because of Dr. Attridge's attitude toward Mrs. Griffith, but it is said the couple had reconciled after Mrs. Griffith was in the hospital.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth is that he could not have caught the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

PASSENGERS RESCUED.

A dispatch from Halifax, N. S., says the government steamer Lady Laurier came up from Ironbound Island last night with 500 of the passengers of the wrecked steamer Mount Temple. They spent Monday night wherever they could find shelter or in the open on the ground of Ironbound Island wrapped in blankets as their only protection from the weather, and with huge fires to keep them from freezing.

The women and children were able to find refuge in a large fish house, in the lighthouse, and in the two dwelling houses of the island. The children were the greatest sufferers, being poorly dressed and badly shod.

The steamer Mount Temple lies as she did when she first stranded, all her holds but one full of water, and the engine room flooded. If the wind shifts there will be but slight chance of getting her off, and the best informed shipping people think she will become a total loss.

The captain and some of the officers are still on the steamer, but the crew have left.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it with no hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountain shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It cures the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a generous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub when the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadreter & Sons.

RETURNING EMIGRANTS
There is some alarm lest the hordes of returning emigrants without money will critically glut the already overcrowded labor market in Germany.

It has been unofficially suggested that the government initiate the American plan of extending credit. Labor organizations are greatly troubled over the prospect of an influx at a time when the question of employment is acutely difficult. Commodities, even the bare necessities, are rising to almost famine prices.

It was stated at a meeting of the municipal council of Schussenberg, a suburb of Berlin, last night, that there were 30,000 skilled and 95,000 unskilled workmen idle in Berlin alone. A proportionate number are idle in other industrial centers and in the farming region. The trade unions have already been compelled to cut in half their dues to the unemployed.

Similar conditions prevail in Austria, to which country more American emigrants have returned in a fortnight than departed. The prices of food are rising, and troubles are feared.

Here's Good Advice.
O. S. Woolver, one of the best known merchants of Le Royville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Buck-Lin's Anus Ointment. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Guaranteed for sores, cracks, burns or abrasions, 25c at all drug stores.

About Christmas Gifts and the Buying.

Never was a store better stocked than is ours today with everything in the way of Christmas gifts. A collection of gifts in so broad a variety, so fine in quality, so useful in purpose, that it is a rare holiday shopping in and about Washington.

There are Advantages in Early Buying.
And more and more people are finding it out every year. Stocks are at their best; assortments are unbroken; you avoid the crowds, get prompt and better attention, and have leisure to examine the many different sorts of goods, and to make more deliberate and careful selections.

All are cordially invited to make use of the store's conveniences, whether they come as buyers or merely as lookers-on.

Our fifth floor departments are of especial interest at the gift season. The vast stocks offer not alone a wonderful variety from which to choose, but items of a serviceable character. We would suggest early selections while assortments are complete.

Rugs as Xmas Gifts.
Rugs have been favorite gifts from time immemorial. And they are not presents that are lost sight of in a week, or a month or two, but constant reminders of the sender for years to come.

Our stock of Foreign and Domestic Rugs is complete—just as much so as it was at the beginning of the season. The styles are superior—in many cases exclusive, and embody the latest ideas of the most prominent manufacturers.

We are showing a superb assortment of Oriental Rugs, and call attention to a number of rich examples of Oriental weaving, combining great beauty of design or rare color combinations.
